

Professional Licensure General Disclosure MA/MEd in Elementary Education

In accordance with 34 C.F.R. §668.43, and in compliance with the requirements outlined in the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (SARA) Manual, DePaul University provides the following disclosure related to the educational requirements for professional licensure and certification¹.

This disclosure is strictly limited to the University's determination of whether its educational program, MA/MEd in Elementary Education, if successfully completed, would be sufficient to meet the educational licensure or certification requirements in a State for teacher certification.² DePaul cannot provide verification of an individual's ability to meet licensure or certification requirements unrelated to its educational programming.

This disclosure does not provide any guarantee that any particular state licensure or certification entity will approve or deny your application. Furthermore, this disclosure does not account for changes in state law or regulation that may affect your application for licensure and occur after this disclosure has been made. Enrolled students and prospective students are strongly encouraged to contact their State's licensure entity directly using the links provided to review all licensure and certification requirements imposed by their state(s) of choice.

DePaul University has designed an educational program curriculum for a MA/MEd in Elementary Education, that if successfully completed is sufficient to meet the licensure and certification requirements for teacher certification in the following states³:

¹ The terms related to teacher licensure, including licensure and certification, among others, vary by state and your state may use different terms.

³ If the State does not regulate/license teachers, DePaul's program has been determined to be sufficient for these purposes.
